

Emotional and Spiritual Care in Disasters ICISF Certificate Request Form

This curriculum has been approved for use by both The Salvation Army National Disaster Training Program (NDTP) and the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation (ICISF) Critical Incident Stress Management curriculum (CISM).

If you have completed this course as registered through The Salvation Army National Disaster Training Program (NDTP), and the course has not been registered through the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation (ICISF), you may send a copy of your completed NDTP certificate to ICISF, along with this form, and the accompanying fee to receive a certificate from ICISF. This will allow you to utilize this course for completion of the ICISF Certificate of Specialized Training.

Please complete the following items and send them to the address below:

International Critical Incident Stress Foundation
3290 Pine Orchard Lane, Suite 106
Ellicott City, MD 21042

- Enclose this form (keep a copy for yourself).
- Enclose a copy of your NDTP certificate of completion
- Submit a check for the amount of $10.00

Upon completion of the following items, ICISF will mail an ICISF certificate to you.

Participant name

Course location

Mailing address

Home phone

Work phone

Instructor name

Dates of course completion

I attest that I have completed the entire 13 hour course entitled Emotional and Spiritual Care in Disasters through an approved instructor within The Salvation Army National Disaster Training Program and have enclosed a copy of the official NDTP certificate of completion.

Participant name signature

Date